

RALEIGH IN BRIEF.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN AND AROUND THE CAPITAL.

Short Items of News Gathered on the Fly by the Chronicle's Reporters.

Taxes are due, and don't you forget it.

The Capital Club anticipate moving into new quarters in the Henry building this week.

Two land companies have launched their schemes in Raleigh, and two more are being formed.

Geo. O. Morris has far surpassed any of his former scenic efforts in "A Legal Wrong."—Chicago News.

There will be an important meeting of Manteo Lodge, I. O. O. F., to-night. Work in the second degree.

Sheriff J. W. Crowell and Mr. Silas Lucas, of Wilson, brought four prisoners to the penitentiary yesterday.

The new mission chapel being erected in west Raleigh by the First Baptist church is approaching completion.

The sheriff yesterday issued certificates of election to the county officers and members elect of the legislature in Wake county.

Six handsome new residences are in course of construction in the North-eastern part of the city, and double that number are going up in other parts of the town.

Any person who has lost a tame deer in this section should make the fact known to Box 193, city postoffice, and describe property. The deer has been found and is well cared for.

The municipal election comes off next May, and already there is talk about who shall be the next Mayor. All the Chronicle wants is a live man. Mayor Thompson is the man, of course, but he has said positively that he cannot take the office for another term. Who shall his successor be?

The chamber of commerce which meets to-night will probably take some action with reference to a new system of sidewalks. This matter has been quiet long enough gentlemen. It is no credit to a town to have to do so much fighting and so much talking to secure an absolute public necessity.

Are you remembering that chrysanthemum show? It will be the nicest affair and most pleasing incident of the season. The last one netted about $275 for St. John's Hospital, and the coming show ought at least to equal the last one in that respect. It will surpass the last one in all other features.

Late yesterday afternoon Mr. N. R. Young, manager of the Western Union Telegraph company, shot and killed, near Spring Hill, an owl of unusually large size. The big bird, which was apparently of considerable age, was found in the wood, and was large enough to carry off a full grown fowl.

Some time ago the CHRONICLE made mention of the fact that Rev. Baylus Cade had invented a type-writer, the mechanism of which was such that it could be used on record books, journals, ledgers, &c., and intimated that the time would soon come when as set of bank books or commercial books of any kind would be written up by a type-writer instead of a pen. The machine is now about completed. It is at Allen & Gram's shops, in this city.

Durham will hold a chrysanthemum show and festival to-morrow for the benefit of the Soldiers' Home. The ladies in charge are: Mesdames S. F. Tomlinson, A. G. Carr, L. A. Carr, V. Ballard, A. Fairbrother, S. C. Anderson, J. F. Cain, E. L. Duke, E. S. Thomson, J. A. Robinson, J. H. Allen, H. N. Snow, W. W. Fuller, W. L. Wall, W. M. Morgan, E. A. Hearitt, and J. M. Manning, assisted by the young ladies.

Yesterday some fine and also some very "catchy" pictures and chromes were distributed among the business houses and business offices of the city by Mr. Ed. B. Barbee, one of Raleigh's largest business men. These pictures advertise the old "Egerton Scotch Snuff," which was a favorite article before the war, and which has steadily held its standard and excellency up to today. Mr. Barbee is special State agent for this article, and it has a larger and more certain hold and sale on consumers than all other brands of snuff combined in this section.

A Little Shooting Affray.

There was some excitement on Fayetteville street about 12:30 o'clock last Saturday night over the discharge of a pistol. Henry Hartsfield and Richard Gattis, two young men, had a quarrel over some matter during which Hartsfield fired his pistol, though nobody was struck. Both parties were called up for a hearing before the Mayor and both were bound over to appear at the next term of Wake criminal court—Hartsfield in a bond of fifty dollars and Gattis on his own recognizance.

Hartsfield has served a term in the U. S. penitentiary at Columbus, Ohio, and has not long been out.

An Ox's Bad Runaway.

An ox made a bad runaway on Wilmington street yesterday. The mischief got into the animal and he started off up the street in a gallop and wouldn't stop for people, bricks, cudgels nor anything else. People who saw the brute coming cleared out as best they could, but one little boy named Crabtree was not quite quick enough, and he was run over and badly hurt. The wheel of the cart passed over the little fellow's leg and he was unable to stand up after the accident. His leg was badly bruised and wrenched, but not broken.

Trinity College Corner Stone.

The corner stone of the main building of the new Trinity College will be laid to-day with Masonic ceremonies. A number of Raleigh people will attend, among them Hon. D. W. Bain, State Treasurer; Hon. S. M. Finger, Superintendent of Public Instruction; Rev. Dr. F. L. Reid, Josephus Daniels, Esq., of the STATE CHRONICLE and others.

The Late B. F. Moore.

The remains of the late Mr. B. F. Moore will arrive here at 4:15 p. m. to-day via the Seaboard Air Line.

Notice of the funeral services will be given in to-morrow morning's paper.

COMING AND GOING.

Some of The Folks You Know and Their Doings.

C. A. Cook, Esq., of Warrenton, is here.

R. N. Hackett, Esq., of Wilkes, was here yesterday.

Miss Mary Kerr Bingham is on a visit to Mrs. E. E. Moffit.

Judge Strong went down to Kinston yesterday on legal business.

Mrs. MacRae went down to Fayetteville yesterday to visit friends.

Attorney-General T. F. Davidson went up west yesterday afternoon.

Mr. J. Ruffin Williams is sick at his residence on South McDowell street.

J. A. Hoskins, Esq., of Greensboro, registered at the Yarnboro yesterday.

Mr. Richard A. Seawell has come up from Georgia, and is spending a few days here.

Miss Lila Dicks, who has been visiting Mrs. T. W. Bell, will leave to-day for her home in Fayetteville.

Miss Flora Creech, who has been in Marion for some months past, returned to her home in this city yesterday.

Mr. Geo. P. Hart, associate editor of the Greensboro Democrat, passed through Raleigh yesterday to attend the Raleigh court, and from that point he will attend the Rocky Mount fair.

Among the delegates who passed through the city yesterday en route for Shelby to attend the Baptist State Convention were Rev. J. F. Love, of Bayboro, and Rev. J. S. Dill, of Goldsboro.

Mr. J. A. Pearce, formerly solicitor for the Intelligencer, is in the city, and will remain a few days in the interest of the Southern Building and Loan Association, of Huntsville, Ala., which has a local board in operation here.

Miss Gertrude Jenkins, who was stenographer for State chairman Ed. C. Smith during the political campaign, left for her home yesterday. Her stenographic efficiency and ability is very warmly complimented by the chairman, and during her stay here she won numerous cordial friends by her many very pleasant and excellent social qualities.

CHURCH NOTES.

Some Notes of What the City Churches are Doing.

On Sunday a collection was taken in Edenton Street church for Conference purposes, and the amount realized was about $850.

Five new scholars were enrolled in the Sunday school of Central M. E. church, and there were two accessions to the church membership. It was announced that work would be resumed on the handsome new house of worship this week and continued till the building was completed. The building committee are hoping to fully complete and pay for the structure during this year.

Eleven new scholars were enrolled in the Sunday school of the Baptist Tabernacle.

THE GOVERNOR'S GUARD.

Mr. Stark Batchelor Elected Captain of The Company.

The Governor's Guard held a meeting last night. Capt. J. J. Bernard sent up his resignation as Captain on account of pressure of other duties. The resignation was accepted with regret.

The company then proceeded to elect a successor to Capt. Bernard, and the unanimous choice of the company was Mr. Stark Batchelor.

The announcement of his election was received with three hearty cheers for Captain Batchelor.

The Theatre To-Night.

The attraction in Metropolitan Opera House to-night is "A Legal Wrong."

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat, speaking of the play, says:

"A Legal Wrong," the nautical drama of sensational scenes, was given before packed houses at the People's yesterday afternoon and night by Geo. O. Morris and an intelligent company. The play rings in the old conventional story of a bank robbery and murder, with a marriage, a sea voyage and other additions to afford an opportunity for thrilling scenes of realism. The cyclone at sea is a striking and vivid climax, where it seems that the salt sea waves will burst across the footlights and roll over the audience. But amid all this sensationalism runs an element of true pathos as well as a mixture of delightful comedy that lends a tinge of human interest to the play. There is some good singing and dancing also.

Seats on sale at MacRae's drug store.

Off For The Baptist State Convention.

The Baptist host of the State will meet in annual convention in Shelby to-morrow. The delegation from this section will leave for that point this morning at 9 o'clock over the Raleigh and Augusta Air Line.

Among those who will go from Raleigh are Rev. Dr. W. Carter, Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall, Rev. Dr. C. T. Bailey, Rev. Dr. Thos. E. Skinner, Rev. Dr. C. Durham, Hon. Geo. W. Sanderlin, Messrs. N. B. Broughton, W. N. Jones, L. H. Adams, Misses Effie Broughton and Olivia Barkley.

Col. L. L. Polk, president of the convention, will be present and open the session.

Accident at the Oil Mills.

There was an accident at the Raleigh Oil Mills yesterday which came near costing a man his life. The exhaust pipe of one of the immense boilers blew out. The colored fireman was standing by the boiler and was violently knocked down by the explosion and rendered unconscious. It was at first thought he was killed. Medical assistance was summoned, and the fireman is now in a fair way to recovery.

Reception This Evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Jackson are expected to arrive at home on the 1 o'clock train to-day, and a general reception will be given them this evening, from nine until twelve, at the residence of Mrs. E. E. Moffit. No cards.

PAMPHLO.

The Famous Young Horse Arrives Here and Will Stay in Raleigh Till Next Summer.

Mr. W. P. Batchelor's famous horse, Pamphlo, arrived in the city Saturday morning, having been away from home over two years, most of the time having been spent in the trotting turf. Pamphlo is a really bred trotting horse. He is in his sixth year, and his record as a five-year-old is unapproached by any horse in this country. As a three-year-old he first became prominent as a trotter when he made a mark of 2:37 on the fair ground track. In his fourth year he was placed in the hands of Mr. J. H. Goldsmith, of New York city, a driver and trainer of national reputation. When four years old he only appeared in two or three races, but improved wonderfully over his three-year-old form, and at the close of the season he had placed to his credit 2:27. This year he has been in no less than fourteen races, eleven of which he has won and never finished worse than third in either of the other three. In these races he has had to contend with the cream of the trotting turf, and notwithstanding this he has made a better record as a trotter than any horse that has ever competed with him. His record of 2:16 1/4 is the fastest fifth heat ever trotted by any horse. During the season, now at its close, he has beaten such good ones as Susan 2:19; Alfred S. 2:17 1/4; Loop and Rose, 2:14; Andante 2:17 3/4; Margaret S. 2:18; Allerton, 2:13 3/4 and numerous others that have repeatedly beaten 2:20. One remarkable feature of his races was that he always failed to get the first heat, and in the majority of cases it took him two heats to get down to business. This all goes to show his remarkable pluck and staying qualities which all breeders earnestly seek. In placing an estimate on the value and speed of Pamphlo one should bear in mind that his record of 2:16 1/4 was made in the fifth heat of a race and not in a trial against time. It should also be remembered that Mand S'best race record is 2:14 1/2, Jay Eye See's 2:15 3/4, and Guy's 2:16 1/2, yet all three of them have records better than 2:11. It is safe to say that if ever Pamphlo should be sent against time accompanied by a running mate he would push 2:12.

REV. DR. WATKINS' LECTURE.

His Discourse on the Congo Free States and the Mission Work a Great Treat—It Ought to be Heard by Every One in Raleigh.

The lecture by the Rev. John S. Watkins, in the Presbyterian church on Sunday night, was attended by a large audience.

For purposes of illustration a large map showing the Congo Free States was used and frequently referred to.

The freedom of these States are guaranteed by the allied powers, including the United States. They extend from the east to the west side of the continent and are supposed to contain some 60,000,000 inhabitants.

The doctor described in an interesting and graphic manner the work of Livingston and Stanley. The physical conditions of the country, the people, present and contemplated improvements which will open this great country to the commerce of the world and particularly to missionary efforts.

He held that the South had a peculiar interest in sending the gospel to the dark continent, and described at length the endeavors of various branches of the Christian church to enlighten its people, nearly all of whom are in the deepest ignorance.

The lecturer showed careful study of his subject and held the large audience spell bound, infusing his own broad missionary spirit in each hearer.

Such lectures are worth hearing and worth repeating.

THE CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW.

An Immense Variety of The Beauties To Be Shown.

The annual chrysanthemum show to be held next Thursday, day and night, will be something beautiful and brilliant. It will be managed by a number of young ladies who of themselves would make the evening delightful, and they will appear in their proper element and thoroughly at home when surrounded by the numerous varieties and many-colored flowers of the glorious Indian summer.

The State experiment farm alone has promised to show as many as one hundred and sixty varieties of chrysanthemums, and there will be a lovely display of many of the choicest and handsomest varieties from the private gardens of the city.

The show will be held on the lower floor of the Henry building.

All persons who have promised contributions of flowers are particularly requested to send them in as early as possible on Thursday morning.

During the day lunch will be served by the ladies, and all the refreshments and delicacies of the season will be served at night.

This is going to be something that nobody can afford to miss. Note it down. The show is for the benefit of St. John's Hospital.

Dr. W. L. Busbee Dead.

Dr. W. L. Busbee, one of the most prominent and best known citizens of Wake county, died at his home near Auburn last Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. He had suffered with typhoid fever for fifty days. He was born September 23, 1823, and began the practice of medicine in 1847. He had a large practice, and many a poor person has enjoyed the benefit of his skill without charge. He was loved by all who knew him and he will be missed.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon and the interment was in the family burying ground near his home. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon, of this city, and the burial was according to the Alliance ceremonial.

A MINISTER'S ACCIDENTAL DEATH.

Rev. S. D. Franklin Thrown From His Buggy and Instantly Killed.

[Special to STATE CHRONICLE.]

WINSTON, N. C., Nov. 10.—Yesterday while driving to an appointment on the Rowan circuit, Rev. S. D. Franklin, a Methodist minister, was thrown from his buggy and instantly killed. His remains will be brought here to-night for interment. He was a prominent Mason and once highly spoken of for the Oxford Orphan Asylum Superintendency.

The Foreign Brewery Syndicate.

[By United Press.]

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 10.—J. F. Hurst, representing the London Trust Company, in an interview yesterday said that the purchases of American breweries by foreign syndicates amounted to but little over 1 per cent. of the brewing property in this country. Of the 3600 breweries in the United States, the foreigners have secured about 60, representing something over 40 companies.
